Growth Centres are implemented by the State Governments, who are also responsible to raise bulk of the funds required for these projects. The Scheme aims at the certain of industrial infrastructure which involves land acquisition and its development. It is a long gestation process governed by local conditions. Besides much depends on the initiatives taken by the State Governments and also creation of investment friendly environment in the States. It is, therefore, not possible to prescribe a fixed time frame for completion of these Growth Centres.

(d) and (e) Full Central Assistance has been released to two of the four Growth Centres. Balance amount of Central Assistance could not be released to the remaining two Growth Centres because the Central Assistance is released pari passu to State releases and linked to the physical and financial progress made by the State Governments in the implementation of these two Growth Centres.

(g) The initatives for industrial development in the State primarily lies on the State Government.
